TWENTY-NINE

This is the list of Dead That Have Been Found So Far at Detroit.

SIXTEEN OTHERS ARE MISSING

Appalling Casualties From Yesterday's Boiler Explosion Which Occurred in That City.

LIST WILL PROBABLY GROW

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 27.—Twenty-nine are dead, and sixteen missing as a result of yesterday's boiler explosion in the Injunctory factory. Among the identified dead are:

A. E. HOFFMAN.
LOUIS HENNING.
PATRICK MALLOY.
A. K. MILLER.
EUGENE HERTRAM.
H. MURKIN.
JOSEPH OFFICE.
CHARLES MARVIN.
JOSEPH KOSKICK.
STEPHEN CHURCH.
GEORGE SCHENKER.
CHARLES LYDY.
JACOB KOBEL.
WM. MANN.
CHRISTOPHER WALDMAN.
ROBERT CHURCH.
EDWARD HURCH.
JOHN SCHUBER.
RICHARD RYAN.
DOUGLAS DICKINSON, boy.
PETER HOLL.

The Injunctory factory's plant occupied half a square at the corner of Abbot street and Brooklyn avenue. It was composed of two brick buildings, separated by a sixteen foot alley. The rear building, in which the boiler was located and which was completely destroyed, was three stories in height. At feet in depth and 100 feet in width. The boiler room was on the first floor. The first floor was utilized as the engine and boiler room and a room for testing the output of the plant. The finishing and brass manufacturing department was located in the second floor, and the third floor was devoted to the foundry. It is said that not over 35 men were at work in the various departments of this rear building when the explosion occurred. There were four boilers in the plant, two horizontal ones which furnished steam for the engines and two vertical boilers which were used solely to test injectors. It was the horizontal boiler that was in use this morning, which let go and caused the awful loss of life.

The awful crash came without the slightest warning. Those in the front building said it seemed like the concussion of an immense cannon. The floors and roof of the rear building bulged upward and then crashed down with their heavy loads of machinery and foundry apparatus. Walls, roofs and all dropped into a shapeless mass of debris. Windows in houses for a block around were broken by the concussion, and flying bricks filled the neighborhood yards. A dense cloud of dust arose, and as it settled and was succeeded by denser clouds of smoke and steam, agonized cries began to come from the heap of tangled wood, metal and bricks. Those who were only partly buried frantically dug themselves out and then as energetically turned to digging for their comrades who were buried deeper, were feverishly throwing and pulling the debris out into Brooklyn avenue.

Engineer Riley was among the first to dig out from the wreck. His escape was little short of miraculous. When the boiler let go he was kneeling to the floor and one of the smaller testing boilers was blown over his prostrate form in such a way that he ended up on some debris high above him, thereby forming a shield that kept the falling timbers, bricks and machinery from crushing him. The escaping steam, however, burned him severely. After his arrival at Grace Hospital Riley's first words were, "How did it happen? The engine and boilers were all right."

Gradually the rescuers worked their way down through the pile. By 11:30 there were no cries or groans to aid them, for the flames had destroyed those unfortunate who were not killed by the explosion or the fall. But the work of rescue continued with unrelenting haste. When a heavy beam or piece of shuffling was encountered a team of horses was driven in and the piece of wreckage hauled to the street. Stretcher bearers stood beside the delivery and bore away the burned and blackened bodies. In several cases the charred corpses were so hot when recovered that they could scarcely be handled by the undertakers and assistants.

The property loss, according to Secretary Childs, is about $180,000.

TOOK LAUDANUM

Love and Financial Affairs Alleged to Be the Cause of His Act.

AN ATTACHMENT IS PROBABLE

Madisonville, Nov. 27.—The twenty-one union miners arrested Sunday were arraigned today, and there are many about witnesses. Lumber is being hauled to build a "union hotel," as the Nortonville rendezvous will be called. In a conversation with Thomas Rooney, a member of the official board of the United Mine Workers of America, it was learned that the new camp was established with fifty charter members, and one large tent.

President James D. Wood and Vice President Kit Harnaby, Board Member Reed and Attorney Everett Jennings and Jarrold Johnson called on Judge Hall yesterday for the purpose of making a formal demand of the judge to return the tent belonging to the United Mine Workers of America that was taken by the sheriff last Sunday, when the campers were arrested and lodged in jail. Entering the office, the compliments of the day were exchanged, then, refusing an invitation from Judge Hall to be seated, and after a moment's hesitation, President Wood said:

"Judge Hall, I understand that you have in your possession some of the property belonging to the United Mine Workers of America?"

Judge Hall—Yes, sir.

President Wood—I have come to ask that you return at once all of the property belonging to the United Mine Workers of America in your possession to the place from which it was removed.

Judge Hall declined to grant the request of Wood. This action on the part of the judge is the formal notification that an attachment will be issued against County Judge Hall for the recovery of the union goods.

When the cases were taken up, the defendants swore Judge Hall off the bench. Magistrate Jace will try the prisoners.

When the preparations for trial were complete, the miners waived examination, and were held to answer at the February term of court, and all released on their own recognizance.

The case of William Floyd against the Paducah Street Railway company was reinstated on the docket and a mandate from the court of appeals filed for record reversing the judgment and ordering a new trial in the circuit court.

A judgment for the plaintiff for $334.65 was filed in the case of National Wall Paper Co. against C. C. Lee.

In the case of Pat Halloran and others against Manah Cowlin the exceptions of J. D. Moynot to the commissioner's report were sustained and the case ordered set aside. An order, setting aside the submission and the judgment was also made in the case.

In the case of Annie Scott against William Scott, J. D. Moynot, attorney for non-resident, filed his report and was allowed the regular $5 for his services.

He was fined in the same court some time ago by non-appearance but was given another trial as he claims that he misunderstood the date of the trial.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS LOSING

Fighting Near Panama Yesterday and Today—The Losses.

MAKING APPOINTMENTS MONDAY

The names of some who are likely to be among the successful ones.

MARSHALL COLLINS' NEW JOB.

It is probable that the new city council will hold a caucus about Saturday, preparatory to electing officers for the coming year. This has always been the custom, and it will probably be observed by the council-elect.

It is expected that the annual election, and the appointment of police officers by Mayor Yeiser, will take place Monday night at the first regular meeting of the new council. The mayor has the privilege of appointing them any time during the month, and has been known to wait until the latter part, but the appointments are expected Monday.

One of the most interesting races of the elective officers is that of city clerk, for which Messrs. Harry Fisher, incumbent and Former Clerk Wm. Patterson are applicants. The race promises to be very close, and both claim it.

REMAINS ARRIVE.

The remains of the late Captain Henry Taylor arrived last night on the J. B. Richardson from Miami City, Ill., and were this morning taken to the residence of Mr. Hal Walters, at Jefferson and Sixteenth streets, and this afternoon buried at Oak Grove.

Accompanying the remains were: Mr. Charles Hinkleberry, Mrs. S. C. Hazelwood and daughter, Miss Ernie, Mr. Will Burley and Mrs. Martin and children. Mrs. Hazelwood, mother-in-law of the deceased, collapsed near the boat this morning, and had to be taken back, her condition being such that she was unable to remain and attend the funeral.

It is hoped that Mr. J. T. McKinney will be elected keeper of the city hospital.

For city attorney there are two applicants, Attorneys W. A. Berry and M. W. Worthen. Mr. Berry will be elected if he is aided by those who profess to know.

Mr. Thomas W. Bain will be re-elected city weigher.

Mr. B. A. Fowler will be elected wharfmaster, Chief James Woods chief of the fire department, and Mr. W. E. Augustus assistant chief, all at present holding the office, while Mr. William Portenon will be re-elected sexton of Oak Grove.

Mr. C. E. Richardson will be re-elected city treasurer, and Mr. Gus Rogers, at present deputy sheriff, seems to have a cinch on the city assessorship.

The police appointments are arousing great interest. There are fifty or more applicants, and their friends are all making it interesting for Mayor-elect Yeiser.

It is said that Marshal James Collins will be given Officer Fayette Jones' place on the day force, and be given general supervision over the day officers until at some time after the city goes into the second class, when he will be made general police chief. Officer Jones will be jailed after January 1 and Officer Crow city marshal, leaving two vacancies.

Captain Henry Bailey and Lieutenant T. J. Moore will be re-appointed. Among the officers who are certain to be re-appointed are Officers Charles Hart, Ed Clark, Tom Orr, Frank Harlan, Mike Hogan, Guy Nance, L. P. Haeor, Henry Singery, Emil Conlitz, Tom Potter, Jules Frantz, Fayette Honner and Wm. Readles. One of the new police officers will be Mr. B. F. Farrow, who is inured by all the labor union in the city.

Mr. George Garbler will probably be re-elected sewerage inspector. There are many applicants for the position of driver of the patrol wagon, which is filled by the council. Mr. Al Townsend will be made assistant of the changing, the position he now holds, and Mr. Joe Woods, the present overseer, will be re-appointed to some position, to the place of overseer, if not something better.

Mr. J. M. Keel will be license inspector.

The place of market master is one sought by a great many, and it is understood who will get it. It is understood Market Master Hays has a good chance for reappointment.

It is understood that the race for street inspector is between Messrs. Will Utterback, James Eaker and Joe Woods.

Looking Keeper Menfee is tipped as a sure winner for reappointment. Mr. Frank Smalley, the ex-police officer, will not doubt get a place under the administration, but what it is does not seem to be settled.

These are given merely as "tips," but they come straight. There may be changes made to the list between now and Monday, some of them may be incorrect, but for the most part they may be relied upon.

HE IS SAFE.

Captain Ferguson turns up at his home in Cottonwood Point, Ark.

Captain Jim Ferguson, of the Hallette, who has come into considerable notoriety for the past several days by his disappearing from Miami City, where his boat has just been repaired, has turned up safe and sound at his home in Cottonwood Point, Ark. Learning of the sensation his absence had created he at once wired his wife, and others, that he was safe.

It is supposed that Captain Ferguson went down to take funds to get his boat out. It is understood that there have been some financial difficulties about paying for the work done on her, and it is thought the captain went down to get money, and did not desire any one to know where he had gone.

LIBEL CLAIM.

ROUSTER FILES PAPERS AGAINST THE STEAMER CHARLESTON.

The steamer Charleston, under command of Captain Crench, was last night tied up by U. S. Deputy Marshal Mel James on a rouster's preliminary claim of $5.00. Thomas Roark, white, brought the claim before Commissioner Arthur Gardner yesterday afternoon and the case was given a hearing. Captain Crench refused to pay the claim and the costs amounting to a total of $15, and a libel suit was then brought against the steamer on the first Monday in the next month. Captain Crench today executed bond to the amount of $500 and the steamer was released.

"The success of the season" is a press agent's favorite mode of expressing the elegance of his theatrical wars. It can be used in an entirely apt and truthful sense in describing the engagement of Miss Henrietta Crossman at The Kentucky next Monday night. As "Miss Nell," in the play, in which she will be seen here, she was literally the success of the last New York season for over seven months, and it was a success that had its sensational side. She went into New York with her good work in the Frohman and Daly companies forgotten, and opened at a minor theatre. Next morning, so remarkable were the newspaper criticisms, that she was the artistic sensation. Her popularity grew so that she became a fashionable fad, and the theatre at Mecca for exclusive society. Alan Dahn in the New York Journal spoke of her work as "a shock of pleasure." The New York World said that she "fairly dazzled the town," while another paper stated that "she carried the audience off its feet." Miss Crossman and her play will prove a revelation to local playgoers. Seats go on sale Friday morning.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

A CURE FOR IT—NOT A PATENT CURE-ALL, NOR A MODERN MIRACLE, BUT SIMPLY A RATIONAL CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

In these days of hunching and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic, and he need look no further.

In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making untrue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no further than this, and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic nervous dyspepsia who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it that the facts will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that it will digest whatever indigestible food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It treats the overworked organs and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and raising the stomach, which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body.

Any druggist will tell you Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give universal satisfaction.

AT THE KENTUCKY.

Tonight at The Kentucky Mr. Creston Clarke and his supporting company will present "Don Caesar de Bazan."

None among the younger generation of American players stands higher in popular esteem than does Mr. Clarke; and in Paducah especially he is regarded as an established and particular favorite. His interpretations in seasons past have been described in these columns as efficient, thorough and worthy of the highest commendation; and the manner in which he has staged his plays, each being provided with complete and historically correct scenery and accessories, has earned for him deserved reputation as a producer in the true sense of the word. This year Mr. Clarke announces new costumes, new scenic effects and an enlarged and strengthened company, that will assure even better performances than he has been wont to give.

His production of "Don Caesar de Bazan" is regarded as one of the most pronounced successes of his career, and in it both Mr. Clarke and his company are seen at their best. The performance deserves and should receive the patronage of all who desire to witness a grand play presented by a distinguished artist and competent cast, with all the elaboration of scenic detail that characterizes a notable production.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS.
